Behaviour and Inclusion Policy

1 Aims and expectations

1.1 It is a primary aim of our schools that every member of the school community feels valued and respected, and that each person is treated fairly and well. We are a caring community, whose values are built on mutual trust and respect for all. The school behaviour policy is therefore designed to support the way in which all members of the school can live and work together in a supportive way. It aims to promote an environment where everyone feels happy, safe and secure.

1.2 The school has a number of school rules, but the primary aim of the behaviour policy is not a system to enforce rules. It is a means of promoting good relationships, so that people can work together with the common purpose of helping everyone to learn. This policy supports the school community in aiming to allow everyone to work together in an effective and considerate way.

1.3 The school expects every member of the school community to behave in a considerate way towards others.

1.4 We aim to treat all children fairly and apply this behaviour policy in a consistent way.

1.5 This policy aims to help children to grow in a safe and secure environment, and to become positive, responsible and increasingly independent members of the school community.

1.6 The school rewards good behaviour, as it believes that this will develop an ethos of kindness and co-operation. This policy is designed to promote good behaviour, rather than merely deter anti-social behaviour.

2 Rewards

2.1 We praise and reward children for good behaviour in a variety of ways, these may include:

- Staff congratulate children;
- Staff give children stickers;
- We award stickers to children either for consistent good work or behaviour, or to acknowledge outstanding effort or acts of kindness in school;
- Achievement assembly takes place weekly;
- House points are awarded for positive learning behaviours;
- A star of the week is chosen weekly, awarded for endeavour in any area, taking into consideration the starting point of the pupil.

2.2 The school acknowledges all the efforts and achievements of children, both in and out of school.

3 Sanctions

3.1 The school employs a number of sanctions to embed the school rules, and to ensure a safe and positive learning environment. We employ each sanction appropriately to each individual situation. All staff will ensure that the teaching is adapted to meet the needs of every pupil as far as reasonably practicable.

- We expect children to listen carefully to instructions in lessons. If they do not do so, we ask them either to move to a place nearer the teacher, or to sit on their own.
- We expect children to try their best in all activities. If they do not do so, we may ask them to redo a task.
- If a child is disruptive in class, the teacher reprimands him or her. If a child misbehaves repeatedly, we may isolate the child from the rest of the class until s/he calms down, and is in a position to work sensibly again with others.
- The safety of the children is paramount in all situations. If a child's behaviour endangers the safety of others, the class teacher stops the activity and directs the child to an alternative activity, in order to ensure the safety of everyone
- If a child threatens, hurts or bullies another pupil, the class teacher records the incident and the child will receive an appropriate sanction. If a child repeatedly acts in a way that disrupts or upsets others, the school contacts the child's parents and seeks an appointment in order to discuss the situation, with a view to understanding, and being able to help the child modify, their behaviour.
- At lunchtimes support staff record misdemeanours in the record book. This acts as a warning to the pupil who should cease the inappropriate behaviour immediately. If there is a repeat of this behaviour a pupil is sent inside to a member of the teaching staff. If there is persistent inappropriate behaviour at lunchtimes, parents will be informed. This could result in the pupil being sent home at lunchtimes, in line with DfE guidelines around exclusion.
- The school may use after school detentions in certain circumstance in line with the guidelines recommended by the DfE (Department for Education).
- The school may confiscate items deemed inappropriate in line with the guidelines recommended by the DfE. The school retains the right to search pupils should the need arise, subject to guidelines in force at the time from the DfE.

3.2 In addition to these rules, each class also has its own classroom code, which is agreed by the children and displayed on the wall of the classroom. In this way, every child in the school knows the standard of behaviour that we expect in our school. If there are incidents of anti-social behaviour, the class teacher discusses these with the whole class during PSHE.

3.3 The school does not tolerate bullying of any kind. If we discover that an act of bullying or intimidation has taken place, we act immediately to stop any further occurrences of such behaviour. While it is very difficult to eradicate bullying, we do everything in our power to ensure that all children attend school free from fear. Refer to the school anti Bullying Policy.

3.4 All members of staff are aware of the regulations regarding the use of force by teachers, as set out in DfEE Circular 10/98, relating to section 550A of the Education Act 1996: The Use of Force to Control or Restrain Pupils. Teachers and all other staff do not use physical force for any other reason than to ensure the safety of the child, or others, from physical harm, to prevent damage to property which may present a health and safety risk, or to take control in an extreme situation. All incidents of restraint are recorded in a bound book which is reviewed by the academy head and kept in secure storage.

4 The role of the class teacher

- 4.1 It is the responsibility of the class teacher to ensure that the school rules are embedded in their class and that their class behaves in a responsible manner during lesson time.
- 4.2 Teachers and other staff that routinely supervise or work with pupils have a duty of care to all pupils, throughout the school, throughout the day and should support pupils to make the right choices in line with expected behaviours.
- 4.3 The class teachers in our school have high expectations of the children in terms of behaviour, and they strive to ensure that all children work to the best of their ability.
- 4.4 The class teacher treats each child fairly and reinforces the classroom code consistently. The teacher treats all children in their class with respect and understanding.
- 4.5 If a child misbehaves repeatedly in class, the class teacher keeps a record of all such incidents. In the first instance, the class teacher deals with incidents him/herself in the normal manner. However, if misbehaviour continues, the class teacher seeks help and advice from the Academy Head.
- 4.6 The class teacher liaises with external agencies, as necessary, to support and guide the progress of each child. The class teacher may, for example, discuss the needs of a child with the education social worker or behaviour support services.
- 4.7 The class teacher reports to parents about the progress of each child in their class, in line with the whole-school policy. The class teacher may also contact a parent if there are concerns about the behaviour or welfare of a child.

5 The role of the Academy Head

- 5.1 It is the responsibility of the Academy Head, under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, to implement the school behaviour policy consistently throughout the school, and to report to the Local Governing Body, when requested, on the effectiveness of the policy. It is also the responsibility of the Academy Head to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all children in the school.
- 5.2 The Academy Head supports the staff by implementing the policy, by setting the standards of behaviour, and by supporting staff in the implementation of the policy.
- 5.3 The Academy Head keeps records of all reported serious incidents of misbehaviour.
- 5.4 The Academy Head has the responsibility for giving fixed-term exclusions to individual children for serious acts of misbehaviour. For repeated or very serious acts of anti-social behaviour, the Academy Head may permanently exclude a child. Both these actions are only taken after the issue has been discussed with the Principal/CEO and school governors have been notified.

6 The role of parents and carers

- 6.1 The school works collaboratively with parents, so children receive consistent messages about how to behave at home and at school.
- 6.2 We explain the school rules within this policy, and we expect parents to read these and support them.
- 6.3 We expect parents to support their child's learning, and to co-operate with the school, as set out in the homework policy. We try to build a supportive dialogue between the home and the school, and we inform parents immediately if we have concerns about their child's welfare or behaviour.
- 6.4 If the school has to use reasonable sanctions to sanction a child, parents should support the actions of the school. If parents have any concern about the way that their child has been treated, they should initially contact the Academy Head. If the concern remains, they should contact the school governors. If these discussions cannot resolve the problem, a formal grievance or appeal process can be implemented.

7 Role of governors

- 7.1 The governing body has the responsibility of setting down these general guidelines on standards of discipline and behaviour, and of reviewing their effectiveness. The governors support the Academy Head in carrying out these guidelines. The Academy Head has the day-to-day authority to implement the school behaviour and discipline policy, but governors may give advice to the Academy Head about particular disciplinary issues. The Academy Head must take this into account when making decisions about matters of behaviour.

8 Fixed-term and permanent exclusions

- 8.1 Exclusion is seen as the last resort in the school's system of sanctions.
- 8.2 The aim of the school is to keep children in school unless cases of indiscipline or breach of school rules are such that exclusion can be seen as the only way to maintain the safety of individuals, good order, behaviour and discipline.
- 8.3 This can be of two types:
- Fixed term, where the pupil is excluded between 1 and 5 days in a single occurrence, up to a maximum of 45 days within a school year. Including fixed period lunch time exclusion.
 - Permanent.

- 8.4 Only the Academy Head has the power to exclude a pupil from school. The Academy Head may exclude a pupil for one or more fixed periods, for up to 45 days in any one school year. The Academy Head may also exclude a pupil permanently. It is also possible for the Academy Head to convert fixed-term exclusion into a permanent exclusion, if the circumstances warrant this.
- 8.5 If the Academy Head excludes a pupil, s/he informs the parents immediately by telephone in the first instance, giving reasons for the exclusion. At the same time, the Academy Head makes it clear to the parents that they can, if they wish, appeal against the decision to the Local Governing Body. The school informs the parents how to make any such appeal. The Academy Head informs the Principal/CEO of the Trust and the Local Governing Body about any exclusion.
- 8.6 Parents, the Trust CEO and the Local Authority will receive a copy of the formal exclusion letter.
- 8.7 The governing body itself cannot either exclude a pupil or extend the exclusion period made by the Academy Head.
- 8.8 The Academy Head maintains a serious incident file, which records all the details of every exclusion and is responsible for the paperwork. A report on the number, type and nature of exclusions is given to the CEO and the LGB on a half-termly basis.
- 8.9 Work is set for the excluded pupil for the period of the exclusion and is marked and fed back to the pupil following the existing Marking Policy.
- 8.10 Following a fixed term exclusion, the pupil and their parent/carer are seen by the Academy Head at a 'Return to School' meeting prior to being re-admitted to school.
- 8.11 In some cases, a pupil has one or more fixed term exclusions coupled with a poor behaviour record, the placement at the school may be deemed inappropriate for the child. If the child is a risk of permanent exclusion, the parent/carer will be asked to attend an interview and an Inclusion Action Plan will be drawn up. The aim being to support the child to avoid a permanent exclusion, the school recognises the importance of partnership with parents particularly at this stage to ensure the child is sufficiently supported to succeed.
- 8.12 In the event of a permanent exclusion, procedures follow DfE Guidance for maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units.
- 8.13 The Trust Board will convene a discipline committee, which is made up of between three and five members. These members may be drawn from the Members, Trustees or any Local Governing Body within the Trust. This committee considers any exclusion appeals on behalf of the Local Governing Body.

8.14 When an appeals panel meets to consider exclusion, they consider the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded, consider any representation by parents, the Local Authority and the Trust, and consider whether the pupil should be reinstated.

If the governors' appeals panel decides that a pupil should be reinstated, the Academy Head of the school must comply with this ruling.
